Welcome to the first ever Summer Skies Astrology Gathering.

Summer Skies is a brand new event in the astrological calendar – a unique gathering offering a range of insights into astrological subjects and techniques. It also presents a different kind of learning experience that we feel will be particularly helpful for the student and practising astrologer. Masterclass sessions will be dynamic and interactive, and there will be a focus on gaining experience and putting practical tools to use. There will be time for everyone to work together in smaller groups too, led by the tutor and facilitated by the three of us.

Our aim is to provide all attendees with an intensive astrological education, and we hope that everyone leaves feeling more confident in their astrological understanding and able to use these techniques in their work. The event is open to astrologers and students of all levels, but a basic knowledge of the building blocks (signs, planets, houses, aspects) will be assumed.

We hope you'll join us for these two days for what promises to be a memorable first gathering.

Helping you become the best astrologer you can be

THURSDAY 15th

FRIDAY 16th

Interpretation and Synastry Day

Day One will offer an array of insights into chart interpretation and synthesis from the respected Paris-based astrologer Lynn Bell. Later in the afternoon, Frank, John and Wendy will spend time focusing on useful synastry tools and techniques. They will present practical examples and exercises to help you gain greater confidence in understanding and articulating the astrology of relationship dynamics.

10:00–10:30 Frank Clifford, John Green & Wendy Stacey
Introduction & Welcome

Our program begins with horoscope snapshots of a few newsworthy figures.

10:30–12:00 Lynn Bell
Unravelling the Mysteries of the Chart

Where to begin? Some charts give up their secrets with great difficulty, others invite us part way in ... yet retain their mystery. In this masterclass, we shall explore and interpret different kinds of chart structures.

12:00–12:15 Break

12:15–13:30 Lynn Bell
Unravelling the Mysteries of the Chart

Part two. In this session, we'll focus on interpreting examples from participants.

13:30–14:30 Lunch

14:30–15:15 Frank Clifford
Synastry: Working with Sign Combinations

Understanding the dynamics between the signs is the first step in synastry work. Every pairing has themes in common, as well as components that don't gel so easily. Frank will work with the group to help articulate and pinpoint themes found in various sign pairings.

15:15–16:00 Wendy Stacey
Synastry: Holding on to My Other Half

This talk will explore why we choose certain people to form relationships with and how the dynamics are played out.

16:00–16:15 Break

16:15–17:00 John Green
Synastry: Throw Away Your Cookbooks

Synastry cookbooks that give set interpretations for planet and sign combinations are great tools to use while studying. But how do you start synthesizing complicated horoscope interactions for your client?

17:05–18:00 Frank Clifford, John Green & Wendy Stacey
Synastry: Techniques in Practice

Employing the techniques introduced earlier, we'll take a case study and consider how its themes could be played out in the relationship privately and publicly.

Forecasting and Electional Day

Day Two focuses on several practical techniques used in forecasting – courtesy of the experienced astrologer and teacher Sue Tompkins. After lunch, Roy Gillett will offer ways to use your Solar Fire software to the fullest extent. And renowned astrologer Deborah Houlding concludes the gathering with an afternoon of practical and useful strategies to help you master electional astrology.

10:00–10:30 Frank Clifford, John Green & Wendy Stacey
Introduction & Welcome

Our program begins with horoscope snapshots of a few charts in the news.

10:30–12:00 Sue Tompkins
Forecasting in Practice

Join Sue for a practical hands-on, intensive double-session reviewing and using major techniques (transits, progressions and Solar Arc directions) along with some lesser-known ones.

12:00–12:15 Break

12:15–13:30 Sue Tompkins
Forecasting in Practice

Part two. In this session, Sue will work with the group on some examples to see astrology in action.

13:30–14:15 Lunch

14:15–15:00 Roy Gillett
Making the Most of Solar Fire

Roy will reveal many fascinating tips and short cuts to help you make the most of Solar Fire for forecasting and electional work.

15:00–16:30 Deborah Houlding
Electional Astrology: Electing for Success

This workshop explains the most important and reliable techniques of electional astrology. Deborah will demonstrate its principles through a number of case histories relating to themes that are most relevant for the modern client.

16:30–16:45 Break

16:45–18:00 Deborah Houlding
Electional Astrology: Electing for Success

Part two. In this second part, Deborah will set a task for the group, and offer more tips and tools for the working astrologer.

ASTROLOGY STUDENT CONFERENCE

Welcome to the 7th Annual Astrology Student Conference!

Once again we feel proud and privileged to have a line-up of world-class speakers – a stellium of leading teachers, authors and consultants who will be sharing their insights during this special weekend.

The theme of our 7th conference is ‘The Circle of Life: Exploring the Nature of the Signs’, and a particular focus will be on how signs that share a planetary ruler differ in attitude, motivation and style. With the help of Mark Jones and Donna Cunningham, we’ll also be looking at the signs involved in the continuing Uranus–Pluto square and how this aspect is impacting particular generations.

We’re delighted to welcome back Richard Swatton, John Green, Mark Jones, Bernadette Brady and Sue Tompkins. The Company of Astrologers’ co-founder Maggie Hyde will be joining us for the first time. Two of the sessions this year will be ‘live via satellite’, as we get the chance to listen to the celebrated astrologers Donna Cunningham and Erin Sullivan, who reside in the States.

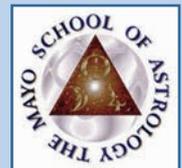

We’re back at Hughes Parry Hall once more for this two-day event. We shall have a bookstall of the latest titles, classic texts and books from the speakers – all thanks to The Astrology Shop of Neal Street, Covent Garden.

Thank you all for your continued support of this event. We look forward to welcoming you to the conference on 17 and 18 May, and hope you’ll also be able to join us for the Summer Skies gathering that takes place prior to our event.

SATURDAY 17th

10:30–10:40 Frank Clifford & Wendy Stacey
Introducing the Weekend and the Schedule

10:40–11:50 Richard Swatton
Gemini and Virgo: Knowing and Doing

Gemini and Virgo perform the dual functions of Mercury: knowing and doing. In this talk, we'll consider the part they play in the alchemical and psychological processes in the development of consciousness: the division of opposites, analysis and integration.

11:50–12:15 Break

12:15–13:15 John Green
Kallisti: To the Most Beautiful

Venus rules the signs of earthy Taurus and airy Libra, but what are the differences between them? Is Taurus simply the materialistic sensualist and Libra the harmonising aesthete? Today we'll look at what really makes each sign tick.

13:15–14:45 Lunch

14:45–16:00 Maggie Hyde
True Spirit

Jupiter rules Sagittarius by day and Pisces by night, but each of his signs has its unique identity. What do the Archer and the Fish have in common, and where do they differ?

16:00–16:30 Break

16:30–17:15 Erin Sullivan (via Skype)
In Love with the Mystery

Of all signs, Scorpio, ruled by Pluto, is the most enigmatic and shadowed archetype. The astrological Pluto is Hades, the guardian of the riches of mother Gaia, where all our resources reside in the most profound realm of the psyche. It is here where we encounter a place of truth and consequence.

17:15–18:00 Frank Clifford
The Polarity Picture Show and Mystery Chart Quiz

Frank will take us on a quick, visual tour of the six pairs of opposite signs, and consider what they share, how they differ, and what they can teach each other. The session will end with a Mystery Chart Prize Quiz.

18.00 onwards Optional Dinner at Anacapri (£25)
Travel to restaurant for 6.30pm dinner at Anacapri, 10 Dorset Street, London W1U 6QR, 020 7935 6441.

Includes a three-course Italian dinner and coffee (travel and beverages not included). Details of the menu and restaurant will be given on the day (off Baker Street, 5-8 mins walk from Baker Street underground).

SUNDAY 18th

10:30–11:30 Wendy Stacey
Heart and Soul: The Luminaries and Their Signs

In this opening session, we shall look at the aspects of life that are governed by the Sun and Leo and the Moon and Cancer – and how these form the core principles of our personality.

11:30–11:45 Break

11:45–13:00 Mark Jones
The Evolutionary Potential of Uranus–Pluto in the Development of the Individual

Uranus in Aries represents the individual and collective aspiration for freedom from restriction, and Pluto in Capricorn shows the capacity of the higher will to transform our relationship with authority. Using our charts, we'll discover how to overcome the internal and external voices that restrict us, and experience the possibility for radical empowerment.

13:00–14:30 Lunch

13:30–15:30 Dr. Bernadette Brady
Working with Difficult Transits – WORKSHOP (£30)

When you see heavy times ahead, what constructive counsel can you offer yourself and/or your clients? And how do you find the balance between providing clarity and filling your client with apprehension?

14:30–15:30 Frank Clifford
Astrology in Action: Film, TV & Comedy Clips

Sit back, relax and enjoy a range of horoscopes along with an entertaining series of related clips that get to the very heart of an astrological placement or aspect.

15:40–17:00 Sue Tompkins
Between a Rock and a Hard Place: An In-depth Look at Capricorn and Aquarius

Each sign in the zodiac is both a development from, and reaction to, the previous sign. Sue will discuss the key differences between the Saturn-ruled signs, as well as how Capricorn differs from its ruler Saturn.

17:00–17:15 Break

17:15–18:00 Donna Cunningham (via Skype)
The Capricorn Stellium Generation

Every child born during parts of 1988–90 has a super-conjunction of Saturn, Uranus and Neptune – an event that happened last in 1307. These births had as many as seven Capricorn planets. In this talk, discover how the Uranus–Pluto square is complicating the usual challenges of young adulthood.
