THE 11TH ASTROLOGY STUDENT CONFERENCE

BROWNS, COVENT GARDEN, LONDON 1-2 SEPTEMBER 2018

WELCOME TO OUR 11TH ANNUAL ASTROLOGY STUDENT CONFERENCE!

It promises to be a highly educational and thought-provoking weekend with a group of world class astrologers. This year's theme is 'The Astrology of Creativity' and we are offering a number of fresh and innovative lectures that we hope will inspire and inform.

We are proud to offer workshops by esteemed psychological astrologer Lynn Bell (on Saturday) and psychotherapist Mark Jones (on Sunday). We also welcome back Wade Caves from the U.S. and are delighted to introduce a handful of new speakers from around the globe. From Norway we welcome Sol Jonassen, a dynamic teacher and healer based in Oslo, and from Serbia we are joined by ISAR President Aleksandar Imsiragic and astrologer-author Dr Lea Imsiragic. Another first time speaker at the ASC is author-editor Dr Armand Diaz, who is visiting us from the States. There will also be lectures on the Year Ahead and a session on spontaneous chart interpretation.

For this weekend we are back at the wonderful courtrooms above Browns Restaurant on St Martin's Lane (located close to Leicester Square and Covent Garden). We also invite you to join us for private dining on Saturday evening, and once again we are thankful to Barry Street from The Astrology Shop (located nearby should you wish to visit at lunchtime) who will be supplying us with many books and some interesting offers for ASC delegates.

Please contact enquiries@mayoastrology.com should you wish to receive information on accommodation in the area.

Thank you again for supporting both The London School of Astrology and The Mayo School of Astrology at our annual conference and we look forward to spending time together on the 1st and 2nd September 2018.

SATURDAY 1 SEPTEMBER

- 10:00–10:30 Registration
- 10:30–10:50 Introducing the weekend
– Wendy & Frank
- 10:50–11:45 Astrology and Sub-personality Work
– Sol Jonassen

Our charts show the different sub-personalities that play out in our lives. But if we cannot balance these archetypal energies, they can spin us off course. A feisty Mars can be troubling if we overreact and act impulsively, while a strong Venus can equally cause us trouble if we shun conflict. In this lecture we will explore how best to start communicating directly with these archetypes.

- 11:45–12:15 Break
- 12:15–13:30 Glowing Health with ‘Energy Astrology’
– Dr. Lea Imsiragic

Disease begins when we try to avoid our soul lessons, as defined by our planets. The result is that our consciousness withdraws from a particular organ, a relationship or even from finances (money is energy, too). ‘Energy Astrology’ gives us an extremely accurate map for discovering what lessons we are avoiding, how to get back on track, and how to achieve health by combining astrology, coaching and energy work.

- 13:30–14:45 Lunch
- 14:45–16:15 Collective Soul: Creativity and the Outer Planets – Armand Diaz

SUNDAY 2 SEPTEMBER

- 10:00–10:30 Registration
- 10:30–11:45 Undignified and Unapologetic: The Raw Creativity of Debilitated Planets
– Wade Caves

Too often traditional astrologers discount the power of debilitated planets, not recognising that in them lies the secret to adaptive creativity. Let’s unpack debility and see for ourselves.

- 11:45–12:15 Break
- 12:15–13:30 Our Karmic Journey and the Lessons We Learn – Aleksandar Imsiragic

From a karmic viewpoint, the purpose of each of our incarnations is to gain specific knowledge from experiences suggested in our natal chart. There are two planets in particular that represent our lessons in our current incarnation. Aleksandar will reveal these and show how they can guide us to fulfilling our purpose and raising our level of consciousness.

- 13:30–14:45 Lunch
- 14:00–16:00 Becoming a Creative Astrologer
– a workshop with Mark Jones
(an additional £30)

In this workshop, Mark Jones shares his orientation to astrology with a series of techniques that will help and

As Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto move through the signs, they create a harmonic chord of symbolic meaning over which the melody of our lives is played. Today, Armand will explore how we can consciously connect our personal creativity to the themes of our – and other – generations.

16:15–16:45 Break

16:30–18:30 Singing the Body Electric: Uranus in Taurus – a workshop with Lynn Bell (an additional £30)

As Uranus moves through Taurus, the electricity of the heavens reaches deep into the Earth element. Earth resists, Uranus shocks. The pulse of the unfamiliar sets stones dancing, and it can bring the inert back to life or send cracks jolting through our foundations. We are asked to remember that Earth is more than what we may touch or see. When Earth receives, Uranus awakens. In this workshop, Lynn will help us consider our own resistances and awakenings during this seven-year passage. Bring your charts.

16:45–17:45 Making the Most of the Year Ahead – Wendy Stacey

Wendy will consider transits and the upcoming planetary climate to see how we can make creative use of the energies around us in the coming year. (A recording and PDF will be made available to those attending Lynn Bell's workshop.)

19:00 Dinner at Brown's (additional £40) – see details overleaf

encourage us all to be more imaginative and innovative astrologers. From how to respond in the moment to a client's true needs, to the use of Solar Arcs in tracking the impact of early life events, Mark will offer a masterclass in becoming as creative an astrologer as you can be.

14:45–15:45 Spontaneous Chart Interpretation – Frank Clifford

Join Frank for an hour of impromptu horoscope analysis and synthesis in which he will pinpoint a chart's major scripts, themes and dynamics. Submit your chart or help Frank explore the potentials and signatures from the horoscopes of willing audience members. (A recording and PDF will be made available to those attending Mark's workshop.)

15:45–16:15 Break

16:15–17:45 Ceres: Cycles of Seasonal Change and the Release of Attachment – Sol W. Jonassen

Ceres is closely linked to Pluto and can give us insight into our need for security, how we experience growing older and how we deal with any history of abuse. In this lecture, Sol will discuss Ceres natively and in synastry. And she will show how, despite change and loss, we can use our understanding of Ceres to return to having a fertile and joyous life.
